external audit processes, and compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

The audit committee first reviews the Company's audited financials, who then recommends approval from the board of directors before they are presented to the stockholders of the Company. It is also the audit committee which ensures independence and objectivity of the external auditors.

As part of its oversight functions, the Audit Committee –

- a. Recommends the approval the Internal Audit Charter (IA Charter), which formally defines the role of Internal Audit and the audit plan as well as oversees the implementation of the IA Charter;
- b. Through the Internal Audit (IA) Department, monitors and evaluates the adequacy and effectiveness of the corporation's internal control system, integrity of financial reporting, and security of physical and information assets. Well-designed internal control procedures and processes that will provide a system of checks and balances should be in place in order to (a) safeguard the company's resources and ensure their effective utilization, (b) prevent occurrence of fraud and other irregularities, (c) protect the accuracy and reliability of the company's financial data, and (d) ensure compliance with applicable laws and regulations;
- c. Oversees the Internal Audit Department and recommends the appointment and/or grounds for approval of an internal audit head or Chief Audit Executive (CAE). The Audit Committee should also approve the terms and conditions for outsourcing internal audit services;
- d. Establishes and identifies the reporting line of the Internal Auditor to enable him to properly fulfill his duties and responsibilities. For this purpose, he should directly report to the Audit Committee;
- e. Reviews and monitors Management's responsiveness to the Internal Auditor's findings and recommendations:

- f. Prior to the commencement of the audit, discusses with the External Auditor the nature, scope and expenses of the audit, and ensures the proper coordination if more than one audit firm is involved in the activity to secure proper coverage and minimize duplication of efforts;
- g. Evaluates and determines the non-audit work, if any, of the External Auditor, and periodically reviews the non-audit fees paid to the External Auditor in relation to the total fees paid to him and to the corporation's overall consultancy expenses. The committee should disallow any non-audit work that will conflict with his duties as an External Auditor or may pose a threat to his independence. The non-audit work, if allowed, should be disclosed in the corporation's Annual Report and Annual Corporate Governance Report;
- h. Reviews and approves the Interim and Annual Financial Statements before their submission to the Board, with particular focus on the following matters:
 - Any change/s in accounting policies and practices
 - Areas where a significant amount of judgment has been exercised
 - Significant adjustments resulting from the audit
 - Going concern assumptions
 - Compliance with accounting standards
 - Compliance with tax, legal and regulatory requirements
- i. Reviews the disposition of the recommendations in the External Auditor's management letter;
- j. Performs oversight functions over the corporation's Internal and

		External Auditors. It ensures the independence of Internal and External Auditors, and that both auditors are given unrestricted access to all records, properties and personnel to enable them to perform their respective audit functions; k. Coordinates, monitors and facilitates compliance with laws, rules and regulations; l. Recommendation 3.5

1. Board establishes a Related Party Transactions (RPT) Committee, which is tasked with reviewing all material related party transactions of the company.

Compliant

Provide information or link/reference to a document containing information on the Related Party Transactions (RPT) Committee, including its functions.

Since the Company does not have a Related Party Transactions Committee, the Corporate Governance Committee shall perform the functions of said committee such as review all material related party transactions of the Company. Further, it shall have the following functions:

a. Evaluates on an ongoing basis existing relations between and among businesses and counterparties to ensure that all related parties are continuously identified, Related Party Transaction (RPT)s are monitored, and subsequent changes in relationships with counterparties (from non-related to related and vice versa) are captured. Related parties, RPTs and changes in relationships should be reflected in the relevant reports to the Board and regulators/supervisors;

b. Evaluates all material RPTs to ensure that these are not undertaken on more favorable economic terms (e.g., price, commissions, interest rates, fees, tenor, collateral requirement) to such related parties than similar transactions with nonrelated parties under similar circumstances and that no corporate or business resources of the company are misappropriated or misapplied, and to determine any potential reputational risk issues that may arise as a result of or in connection with the transactions. In evaluating RPTs, the Committee takes into account, among others, the following:

1. The related party's relationship to the company and interest in the transaction;
2. The material facts of the proposed RPT, including the proposed aggregate value of such transaction;
3. The benefits to the corporation of the proposed RPT;

		4. The availability of other sources of comparable products or services; and 5. An assessment of whether the proposed RPT is on terms and conditions that are comparable to the terms generally available to an unrelated party under similar circumstances. The company should have an effective price discovery system in place and exercise due diligence in determining a fair price for RPTs; c. Ensures that appropriate disclosure is made, and/or information is provided to regulating and supervising authorities relating to the company's RPT exposures, and policies on conflicts of interest or potential conflicts of interest. The disclosure should include information on the approach to managing material conflicts of interest that are inconsistent with such policies, and conflicts that could arise as a result of the company's affiliation or transactions with other related parties; d. Reports to the Board of Directors on a regular basis, the status and aggregate exposures to each related party, as well as the total amount of exposures to all related parties; e. Ensures that transactions with related parties, including write-off of exposures are subject to a periodic independent review or audit process; and f. Oversees the implementation of the system for identifying, monitoring, measuring, controlling, and reporting RPTs, including a periodic review of RPT policies and procedures.
2. Recommendation 5.2

1. The independent directors possess all the qualifications and none of the disqualifications to hold the positions.	Compliant	Provide information or link/reference to a document containing information on the qualifications of the independent directors. All qualifications of the members of the Board are reviewed by the Corporate Governance Committee. An independent director is a person who, apart from his fees and shareholdings, is independent of Management and free from any business or other relationship which could, or could reasonably be perceived to, materially interfere with his exercise of independent judgment in carrying out his responsibilities as a director in the Corporation.

An Independent Director refers to a person who:

- a. Is not, or has not been a senior officer or employee of the Company unless there has been a change in the controlling ownership of the Company;
- b. Is not, and has not been in the three years immediately preceding the election, a director of the Company; a director, officer, employee of the Company's subsidiaries, associates, affiliates or related companies; or a director, officer, employee of the Company's substantial shareholders and its related companies;
- c. Has not been appointed in the Company, its subsidiaries, associates, affiliates or related companies as Chairman "Emeritus," "Ex-Officio" Directors/Officers or Members of any Advisory Board, or otherwise appointed in a capacity to assist the Board in the performance of its duties and responsibilities within three years immediately preceding his election;
- d. Is not an owner of more than two percent (2%) of the outstanding shares of the Company, its subsidiaries, associates, affiliates or related companies;
- e. Is not a relative of a director, officer, or substantial shareholder of the Company or any of its related companies or of any of its substantial shareholders. For this purpose, relatives include spouse, parent, child, brother, sister and the spouse of such child, brother or sister;
- f. Is not acting as a nominee or representative of any director of the covered company or any of its related companies;

		g. Is not a securities broker-dealer of listed companies and registered issuers of securities? "Securities broker-dealer" refers to any person holding any office of trust and responsibility in a broker-dealer firm, which includes, among others, a director, officer, principal stockholder, nominee of the firm to the PSE, an associated person or salesman, and an authorized clerk of the broker or dealer; h. Is not retained, either in his personal capacity or through a firm, as a professional adviser, auditor, consultant, agent or counsel of the Company, any of its related companies or substantial shareholder, or is otherwise independent of Management and free from any business or other relationship within the three years immediately preceding the date of his election; i. Does not engage or has not engaged, whether by himself or with other persons or through a firm of which he is a partner, director or substantial shareholder, in any transaction with the Company or any of its related companies or substantial shareholders, other than such transactions that are conducted at arm's length and could not materially interfere with or influence the exercise of his independent judgment; j. Is not affiliated with any non-profit organization that receives significant funding from the Company or any of its related companies or substantial shareholders; and k. Is not employed as an executive officer of another company where any of the Company's executives serve as directors. Related companies, as used in this section, refer to (a) the covered entity's holding/parent company; (b) its subsidiaries; and (c) subsidiaries of its holding/parent company.
Supplement to Recommendation 5.2
1. Company has no shareholder agreements, by-laws provisions, or other	Compliant	Provide link/reference to a document containing information that directors are not constrained to vote independently. arrangements that constrain the directors' ability to vote independently.

One of the duties and responsibilities of a director is to exercise independent judgment.

A director should view each problem or situation objectively. If a disagreement with other directors arises, he should carefully evaluate and explain his position. He should not be afraid to take an unpopular position. Corollarily, he should support plans and ideas that he thinks are beneficial to the Company.

Recommendation 5.3

1. The independent directors serve for a cumulative term of nine years (reckoned from 2012).

Compliant

Provide information or link/reference to a document showing the years IDs have served as such.

The Company adheres to and adopts the term limits set down in SEC Memorandum Circular No. 9 Series of 2011.

Name	Date of Election	Cumulative Term
Mario A. Oreta	26 May 2021	6 years

2021 ATTESTATION OF INTERNAL AUDIT, CONTROL AND COMPLIANCE SYSTEM

The Board of Directors is responsible in providing governance and overseeing the implementation of adequate internal control mechanisms and risk management process.

Management has the primary responsibility to design and implement an adequate and effective system of internal controls and risk management processes to ensure compliance with laws, rules, and regulations.

Management is responsible to develop a system to monitor and manage risks. The Chief Risk Officer manages the Company's Risk Management System.

The Company's external auditor, Reyes Tacandong & Co., is responsible for assessing and expressing an opinion on the conformity of the audited financial statements with International Financial Reporting Standards and the overall quality of the financial reporting process.

Internal Audit adopts a risk-based audit approach in developing an annual work plan and conducts reviews to assess the adequacy of the Company's internal controls.

The Chief Audit Executive reports functionally to the Audit Committee to ensure independence and objectivity allowing Internal Audit to fulfill its responsibilities.

Based on the above and the assurance provided by the internal auditors as well as the external auditors as a result of their reviews, we attest that PhilWeb Corporation's systems of internal audit, control and compliance are adequate.
